A COMPANY DINNER

on Wednesday 22 November 2023

By kind permission of the Master of the Vintners' Company, we will be dining in the palatial surroundings of Vintners' Hall. The Livery Hall was built in 1671 and has been described as 'the spiritual home of the wine trade'.

The principal guest will be Her Honour Wendy Joseph KC, author and a former Old Bailey judge. The inaugural winner of the Company's Military Trophy, Major Domini Barret of 306 Hospital Support Regiment, will be receiving her award from the Master, and the Masters and Clerks of several other Livery Companies will also be dining with us.

The reception will commence at 6.30pm and dinner will be served at 7pm. Carriages will be at 10.30pm.

The ceremony of the Passing of the Lamp will take place during dinner.

The event is open to all Liverymen and Freemen with up to three guests. The cost per head will be £130 for pre-dinner drinks, and a 3-course dinner with wines and coffee. The dress code will be 'Black Tie' and badges of office and nurse training badges will be worn.
